

Responsibilities

A SHARED, SUSTAINABLE COMMITMENT

The worldwide leader in the cable industry, Nexans is developing expertise in all its markets and puts all its potential behind a responsible, sustainable development approach. Whether in economic, social or environmental areas, the Group is committed to a clear, concrete and effective course of action. It aims to develop lasting profitability for its shareholders. It enhances and develops the skill sets of its personnel, while promoting social dialogue. Indeed, Nexans listens to its customers and supports them in their work by offering environmentally-friendly products geared to their requirements.

P.12

Economic responsibility

Objectives:

- Build long-term profitability
- Promote innovation by anticipating requirements
- Develop partnership links with customers

P.16

Social responsibility

Objectives:

- Develop the skills of each employee
- Promote social dialogue
- Strengthen the company's reputation and attractiveness

P.18

Environmental responsibility

Objectives:

- Control environmental risks
- Manufacture in line with international standards
- Optimize consumption and reduce the impact on the environment